EASTER 7

CROESO : WELCOME

13th May 2018

*Eternal God, giver of love and power,
Your Son Jesus Christ
has sent us into all the world
to preach the gospel of the Kingdom.
Confirm us in this mission and help us
to live the good news we proclaim.*

Today's readings are on page 28

Acts 1: 15-17, 21-26

A new apostle is chosen to replace Judas

Speaking to a large gathering of believers, Peter reminded them of the need to choose someone to replace Judas Iscariot. This person would need to have been with them all through the time that Jesus had been with them, from when John was baptizing until the day when Jesus ascended to His Father. They nominated two - Joseph Justus and Matthias. After praying for guidance they cast lots and Matthias became the twelfth apostle.

1 John 5: 9-13

Believers in the Son of God have eternal life

John writes very clearly that those who believe in the Son of God can know that they have eternal life. He assures believers that God gives eternal life and that that life is in His Son. It follows that those who have God's Son in their life can know without doubt that they have eternal life here and now.

John 17: 6-19

The prayer of Jesus for His followers

In this, His last great prayer before going to the Garden of Gethsemane and on to His trial and crucifixion, Jesus prayed for those who believed in Him. He asked that, when He was no longer with them, they would be protected from evil; that they would be one as He and the Father are one; and that His joy would be in them - so that, sanctified and dedicated to the Truth, they will be sent into the world as He has been sent. This prayer of our Lord is for all of us who believe in Him now.
