2 Kings 4: 42-44
A small gift meets a great need
In a time of famine, Elisha was given twenty loaves and some fresh grain. He told his servants to give the food to the people. They doubted that it could feed the hundred hungry people there but Elisha told them that God had promised that it would be enough. All ate and, as God had promised, there was even some left over.

Ephesians 3: 14-21
A prayer for great blessing in the lives of others
Here we have one of Paul’s most beautiful expressions of his prayer for his Christian friends. He asks that they may be inwardly strengthened, that Christ may dwell in their hearts and, that knowing the greatness of the love of Christ, they may be filled with all the fullness of God. This is a prayer we can all pray for each other and for Christians everywhere.

John 6: 1-21
Two great miracles of Jesus
Crowds followed Jesus because they saw Him healing the sick. John here records how He fed one of those crowds - estimated at five thousand - after blessing just five loaves and two fish given by a boy in the crowd. Later, being very tired, Jesus went away to be alone in the hills. The disciples set off in their boat without Him. They were caught in a storm and were terrified to see Him walking to them across the water. He told them not to be afraid and they reached land safely. Jesus today continues to meet needs and to calm fears.
