

Collect for this week

Pentecost 20

O God,
forasmuch as without you we are not able to please you:
mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit
may in all things direct and rule our hearts;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

CHRISTIAN AID: Give thanks for your Vaccine

The Covid-19 Vaccine is literally a life-saver; many of us are already booked in for our third jab. What about those who still don't have that same easy access and for whom Covid-19 is still a massive health-risk? On 31st October, when we will keep All Saints' Day, there will be a Retiring Collection which will be sent on to Christian Aid to help those who don't have the help we have already received.

PENTECOST 20

10th October 2021

CROESO : WELCOME

God our Father,
whose Son has come from heaven
to deliver the world
from the darkness of ignorance;
open the eyes of our understanding that we may know the way of life
and walk in it without stumbling.

Today's readings are on page 33

Amos 5: 6-7, 10-15

Seek good - that you may live

Amos rebukes the people sharply for their unjust and self-ish living. He calls them to hate evil and to love good, to establish justice in their land so that the Lord will be with them and bless them.

Hebrews 4: 12-16:

Jesus knows all about us
and understands our needs

Jesus is the Word of God, Son of God and our great high priest. All our thoughts and intentions are known to Him. He understands our weaknesses because, in His life on earth, he was tempted and tested as we are - but He did not sin. We can come in prayer to Him, our great high priest in heaven, with complete confidence, knowing that we will receive mercy and grace to help us in our time of need.

Mark 10: 17-31

Live generously

Jesus teaches a rich man that it is not merely keeping the law that is needed for a person to inherit eternal life, it is in living generously and not relying on worldly possessions that can free His followers to live for Him and for the spreading of His good news. Those who live in this way, though possibly facing hardships and persecution, will be blessed in this life and, in the world to come, have eternal life.
